

Sources from The Lowdown: Why Have America's Schools Gotten More Racially Segregated?

1. Urban Institute: America's Public Schools Remain Highly Segregated, August 2014
2. UCLA Civil Rights Project: Brown at 60, Great Progress, A Long Retreat and an Uncertain Future, May 2014
3. Teaching Tolerance magazine: Brown v. Board, a Timeline of School Integration in the U.S., 2007

Sources from Above the Noise: Why Are Schools Still Segregated?

1. National Center of Education Statistics: Racial/Ethnic Enrollment in Public Schools, May 2017
2. The National Coalition on School Diversity: The Complementary Benefits of Racial and Socioeconomic Diversity in School, March 2017
3. Stanford University Center for Education Policy Analysis: School Segregation and Racial Academic Achievement Gaps, October 2015
4. Urban Institute: America's Public Schools Remain Highly Segregated, August 2014
5. Franklin Porter Graham Child Development Institute: First Grade Reading Suffers in Segregated Schools, July 2014
6. Frontline: The Return of School Segregation in Eight Charts, July 2014
7. UCLA Civil Rights Project: Brown at 60, Great Progress, A Long Retreat and an Uncertain Future, May 2014
8. EdBuild: Fractured, The Breakdown of America's School Districts